

A Summit Retreat

The Lodge at Primland · Hosted by Delegate Wren Williams

A fundraiser for the House Republican Caucus. A Summit Retreat brings together House colleagues — including caucus leadership — guests and friends for an evening at one of Virginia's most storied mountain settings.

Primland — No. 1 Resort in the Continental United States, Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards 2025 — sits on 12,000 acres atop the Blue Ridge in Patrick County: championship golf, a nationally rated clays course, a full spa and an on-site observatory, all above 3,000 feet.

During the Day

COMPLIMENTARY FOR TICKETED GUESTS

Golf — The Highland Course

Donald Steel's mountaintop layout, ranked No. 1 public course in Virginia. Bring your own clubs; confirm rentals with the pro shop in advance.

Sporting Clays

Five-stand, instruction available. Rated among the top courses in the nation.

Also arranged with the resort: fly fishing, wingshooting, the spa, RTV trail tours, horseback riding and kayaking.

Reserving your time: tee times, shooting times and observatory slots are booked through Paula Stevens at Primland — paula.stevens@auberge.com — or through Lauren Hall. Book before you arrive; the observatory is capped at 12 slots for our group.

Add 20 minutes for the drive in

From the gate it is another 20 minutes up to the Lodge — a scenic climb through the property. Everything above is to the gate, so add it to your arrival time. These are two-lane mountain roads with switchbacks; after dark, allow more.

PRO TIP · Olde Mill Golf Resort, Laurel Fork

Coming in a day early, or making a golf trip of it? Olde Mill solves lodging and a second round at once — eighteen holes by Ellis Maples, open since 1973, a genuinely good mountain course at a fraction of resort pricing. Built for groups: condos over the 18th green, four-bedroom Birdie Lane cottages, cabins and a three-bedroom lodge, most with full kitchens, so a foursome can share instead of booking four rooms. Stay-and-play packages; Maples Restaurant on site.

Download offline maps before you leave home

Cell service is limited to nonexistent on the mountain, and GPS gets unreliable once you are in Patrick County. Before you drive up, open Google Maps — or whichever maps app you use — search The Lodge at Primland, and download the offline map for this area. In Google Maps: search the area, tap the name at the bottom, then Download offline map. Do the same for Floyd, Hillsville or Martinsville if you are staying off the mountain, and screenshot your directions as a backup. Once you lose signal, a live route will not reload.

What to Wear

Resort casual for everything — with one exception: dinner requires a jacket. Women are not expected to wear cocktail dresses.

Golf: Collared shirt, slacks or golf shorts. No denim.

Clays and outdoors: Casual layers. It cools off above 3,000 feet after dark.

Bring Your Clubs

Plan to bring your own set. If you need rental clubs, confirm availability with the pro shop before you arrive.

Flying In

Blue Ridge Regional Airport (KMTV), Martinsville — the closest full-service option for private aircraft. FBO, fuel and maintenance on site. About 35 miles from the resort.

A Few Practical Notes

Rideshare is limited or unavailable in Meadows of Dan, especially late at night. Do not book off-site lodging assuming you can catch a ride at 11 PM.

If you expect to drink, stay on property or arrange a sober driver in advance.
